Membership Policy and Procedure

Application Process

(a) Membership applications must be submitted on the "BTCA Membership Application form". Copies of this form are available from the BTCA New Member Coordinator. It will also be included in the Border Connections and available in a downloadable PDF file at: http://www.btcoa.org/policy/pp-index.html. The membership application shall have the application form on the front and the Ethical Standard printed on the back.

(b) Membership dues and initiation fee must accompany the application that must be mailed to the New Member Coordinator.

(c) Types of membership:
   - Single Membership: Open to all persons 18 years of age or older and who will enjoy all Club privileges, and who are entitled to one vote on any matter placed before the membership.
   - Household Membership: Open to two adults living at the same household, both of whom will enjoy all Club privileges and each will be entitled to one vote on any matter placed before the membership.
   - Junior Membership: Open to all persons 17 years of age and younger who will enjoy all Club privileges except those of voting and holding office. Juniors will not be required to pay an initiation fee with their application for membership. Upon reaching the age of 18, Junior members may renew their membership with the club, pending Board approval, as either an Individual Membership or as part of a Household Membership. Their names will be published in the October issue of the Borderline - for club member comment.
     * Junior Members may not be listed in the Breeder’s Directory. They are eligible for listing in the Breeder’s Directory after they have been an Individual or Household Member for two years.

(d) Endorsement for new members must be from two members in good standing, who have been members for at least two years. Endorsers must be from a different household than the applicant and different households than each other; for example, a husband and wife both may not endorse an applicant or each other’s application (if applying for separate memberships). One endorser must have known the applicant for at least one year.

(e) All checks for membership must be in US currency. See Check Policy for Funds Submitted to the BTCA.

(f) There will be a 30-day period from the date of publication of new member applications in which to allow members to comment about the suitability of an applicant to join the BTCA. Should an existing member have a comment regarding an applicant, the comments should be sent in writing to the BTCA Recording Secretary.

(g) For current membership dues, refer to P&P Section 3, Documents: Membership Application. Should a Single Membership decide to change to a Household Membership during the year before renewals, the additional member must apply for membership and pay the difference between a Single and a Household membership. U.S members may add an additional $15 to their renewal or application fee to receive The Borderline by First Class Mail. Canadian Members must add $25 U.S. and overseas members must add $55 U.S. for mailing of The Borderline.

Membership Renewal

Membership categories are outlined in Section 1(c) of the Membership Policy (see above).

Dues: Membership dues shall be determined by the Board of Directors and be payable on the first day of January of each year. No member may vote whose dues are not paid for the current year. During the month of November, the Treasurer shall send to each member a statement of dues for the ensuing year. (BTCA Constitution and Bylaws Article 1, Section 2.) Members who are approved after October 1 each year will not be required to renew or pay dues for the following year.
There shall be a 30-day grace period after January 1st of each year with no penalty for renewals. The Board may grant an additional 60 days of grace to a delinquent member in meritorious cases. (BTCA Constitution and Bylaws, Article 1, Section 4, Paragraph b).

Lapsed Memberships

Members who have let their membership lapse for less than a year may reapply by completing a membership application form, mailing it with a check for the full membership fee to the BTCA Membership Coordinator, making note it is a “lapsed membership”. The initiation fee will not apply to these members. The Membership Coordinator will process the lapsed membership just as other new memberships, including publication of the applicant(s) name in the Borderline. Members who reapply during the same year that they lapsed will not lose any time towards their 25-year anniversary. Memberships that have lapsed for over one year will lose time accumulated towards their 25-year recognition and their time towards their 25-year recognition will start over with the year of their reapplication.
